

“Derusha” — A Name of Divine Pursuit

In Hebrew, Derusha (דְּרוּשָׁה) is derived from the root word "darash" (דָּרַשׁ), which means “to seek,” “to inquire,” “to search out with care.” It is not a passive curiosity, but an active, deliberate pursuit—a reaching through the wilderness for something of eternal worth.

This word comes to life in Isaiah 62:12:

“And they shall call them The Holy People, The Redeemed of the LORD; and you shall be called Sought Out, A City Not Forsaken.”

“Sought Out” — Derusha — is a declaration stamped on the hearts of those who have been pursued by God’s relentless love. It’s the name spoken over the abandoned, the broken, the overlooked. It’s the banner over the weary soul, reminding them they are not invisible to heaven.

To be Derusha is to be seen in your suffering, found in your forsakenness, and called holy by the One who redeems all things. It’s not just a name—it’s a divine identity. It means the ministry of Derusha House of Comfort exists not only to comfort others, but to mirror the heartbeat of God: that no one would remain lost, and all would know they have been sought out by grace.
